With Pappy....

Mr. Aschenbrenner

"Pappy" is an affectionate name attached to our principal, Mr. Aschenbrenner. Mr. Aschenbrenner has been with us since South's beginning six years ago. He is one of South's "biggest" rooters and best supporters. We will remember him for his strict government training us to face the fast, modern world. Our dandelions will be forgotten as we learn to avoid mistakes, and our roses of achievement will pave the road onto which he has directed us.

Mr. Brown

Our good natured vice-principal, Mr. Brown, gives unceasingly of his time to listen to any problem and to offer a practical solution. He spends many hours working with seniors helping them to obtain scholarships and in other ways counseling them for college. Mr. Brown is in charge of our school's curriculum system. Under his guidance several college preparatory courses have been added this year.

As we travel on in life, each of us will take with us Mr. Brown's use of common sense.

And Our Deans.... Miss Heringer and Mr. Ramsdell

This is Miss Heringer's second year as Dean of Girls at South. Her quiet efficiency and effectiveness are shown as she is ready to help anyone at anytime. Her sense of humor is often shown as she takes part in school events.

Mr. Ramsdell, Dean of Boys, has worked out many problems that have arisen during the past two years. He handles any situation with ease and understanding. Mr. Ramsdell, in addition to his other duties, has charge of the parking lot and student traffic. Prior to becoming Dean, he was an English teacher and tennis coach at South High.

School Board

Administration of all Salem public schools is a big job well-handled by our competent school board and administrators. Row 1: Mr. Art Meyers, Mr. Harry Scott, Mrs. P. H. Brydon, and Superintendent, Mr. Charles Schmidt. Row 2: Mr. Connell Ward, Mr. Stanley Hammer, Mr. Sid Boise, Mr. Ray Cates, and Dr. George Martin.

and Other Administrators

Secretaries

Keeping the records and finances straight for our small province keeps these four busy. (Above) One of the many tasks of our bookkeeper is counting money and Mrs. Hynd seems to enjoy it. Mrs. McDonough, a secretary, is assisting her. (At right) Mrs. Bastuscheck, office manager, and Mrs. Anderson, secretary, confer over a student's schedule file.

The faculty at South Salem is efficient and well-trained. They are generous in offering advice from their experience. They are cheerful and friendly. They have acknowledged the value of working with the students as well as directing them. They do the work required of them, then go beyond that in helping students catch up on their work, chaperoning, advising clubs, and counseling. By their own standards, the students grade the faculty a well-earned "A" and say "Thank you to all of you".

Toward Our Nearing Future.

The cleanliness of our school and shining halls may be attributed to our "ready, willing, and able" custodians and matrons. Matrons Mrs. Olga Eld and Mrs. Ester Strain. Custodians ROW 1: Ruben Charge, George Commings, Earl Crom, Phil Endres. ROW 2: John Olsen, Bill Hoirup, Tommy Kizziah, Lester Marke, Tyler (Doc) Morley. Not pictured is Alfred Thompson.

The cooks deserve many thanks for preparing our well-balanced meals. These able women and student helpers operate the cafeteria and after-school snack bar. L TO R: Mrs. Casebeer, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Wellbrock, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Barbar and Mrs. Johnson.

Class of '60...

Leaders of Future

As we approach the completion of our senior year, we can look back upon the time spent in South High and say "a job well done!" Members of the class of '60 have contributed to the school as a group and as individuals. Our class has supported enthusiastically such projects as the United Fund drive, the Junior-Senior Prom, "Gone with the Wind," and the after-game dances. Four members of the class, Kay Arthur, Ed Davis, Sam Speerstra, and Lynn Ten Eyck, placed in the Merit Scholarship finals. Clayton Steinke, state cross country champion, and Kenny Sawyer, leading scorer in district football, are two examples of our many outstanding athletes. Leadership for many activities (club, class, A. S. B. officers) has come from our class.

Senior cadet teachers, Alice Berglund and Julie Repine, are seen leaving for grade school as they prepare for future careers.

A.S.B. Officers are the Guiding Light

Leading the student body through another successful year was President Charles Hudkins. He presided over all student council meetings and opened all assemblies. Following Charles' lead was First Vice-President, Jim Lussier. His main responsibility was planning and organizing assemblies throughout the year. The Halloween, Thanksgiving, and the Homecoming Assemblies were among those under his direction. Duties of Second Vice-President, Linda Berry, included promoting all school dances from fall to summer. Redskin-Rock, Mush, and Mr. Touchdown titled a few of the dances. Also under the leadership of Charles was Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Ellen Emery. Mary Ellen acted as official correspondent for the student body and took minutes at all student council meetings. She was also in charge of the student body treasury.

South Chooses Outstanding Seniors

Moving forward with purpose and ambition, the Girls of the Month and the Rotarians represent leadership, character, and service. Chosen by Girls' League, the Girl of the Month has her name engraved on a rotating bracelet which is given, at the end of the year, to the Girl of the Year. South's Rotarians represent South each month at a Salem Rotary luncheon.

South Salem's "peppy" Rally Squad performed at all football and basketball games; and in addition led the well-planned, humorous skits, yells, routines, and spirited pep assemblies for the entire student body. They promoted school spirit throughout the sports seasons. From left to right pointing to the winning score over Corvallis are Sharon Husted, Jerry Sue Dodd, Karen Pederson, Alice Berglund, Karen Cox, Mary Martin, Gene Frickey, Doug Simmons, and Errol Locker.

The enthusiastic shouts of the Pep Club and the Rowdy Dowds were heard by all at the basketball games. Led by Jackie Berry, Pep Club President, the girls went all out in their efforts to support the team. The Rowdy Dowds, with their toad lids, and the girls, in their traditional red and white, added color as well as spirit to South High's section.

South Boasts District Title

Saxon captain shows off Salem Mayor's Trophy.

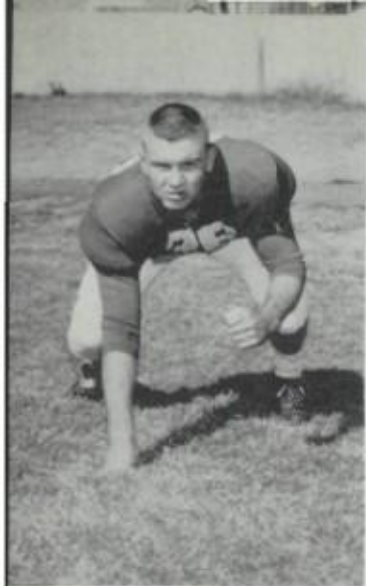

Two smashing victories over North Salem highlighted South's successful grid season, proof of this being the District crown and the Mayor's Trophy. The dazzling speed and power exhibited by Saxon backs kept the crowd roaring and the scoreboard jumping. Led by a stonewall of rugged linemen, the Saxon machine rolled over their district opponents by wide margins in score.

J. V. RALLY

The vivacious J. V. Rally Squad led the J. V. Saxons on to a victorious year. They are JoAnne Hicks, Barbara Fouчек, Mickey Pfouts, Dale Henken, and Gregg Witteman. Their high spirit and loud voices rang throughout the football and basketball seasons.

Go, Saxons, Go!

J. V.'s Shine in '59

Good blocking shows good defense.

The J. V.'s football season proved to be a success and showed that next year South's name again will be feared throughout Oregon as that of a rough team. Under the able coaching of Mr. DeLoretto and Mr. Whitman, South's J.V.'s moved through another high-scoring year. Among teams defeated by the J. V.'s were Sweet Home, Lebanon, Corvallis, Silverton, and North Salem J. V.'s. Their lone defeat was to the Amity varsity eleven.

Pep Club Supports Team

Helping the school grow as a unified student body, our Pep Club strives to build school spirit at all times. An active interest in Saxon sports is shown by the bright posters, the food for the team, and the clever game formations. Pep is supported and promoted by the officers, the council, and all loyal Saxons.

We are the Saxons.

MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY PLANNING BOARD ARE Connie Long, Jim Hoxsey, Ed Perkins, Rich Hawkins, Ken Brant, Jayanne Harvey, Marlene Dolezal, Jim Lussier, Laura Kendrick, and Merrily Schram.

The Assembly Planning Board is responsible for the preparation and production of all Saxon assemblies. Early in the school year are the traditional Thanksgiving and Halloween assemblies. A spine-tingling atmosphere prevailed at the Halloween assembly as a truly "beat" cast presented a "gone" affair. Highlighting the Thanksgiving assembly, the choir rendered an unusual background as Bob Brown narrated "The Creation."

Saxons Attain Goal

Chairman of the United Fund Drive at South, Doug Halvorsen, his committee, and all the Saxons worked hard to make this year's drive a real success. Competition between classes was keen for top honors. Juniors were first with $273; sophomores were second with $190; seniors trailed with $179. Saxon juniors held a dance at the Y. W. to raise money. Seniors enjoyed a box-social to raise money for their class. Sophomores sold tempting pastry in the hall at lunch time to add to the U. F. fund.

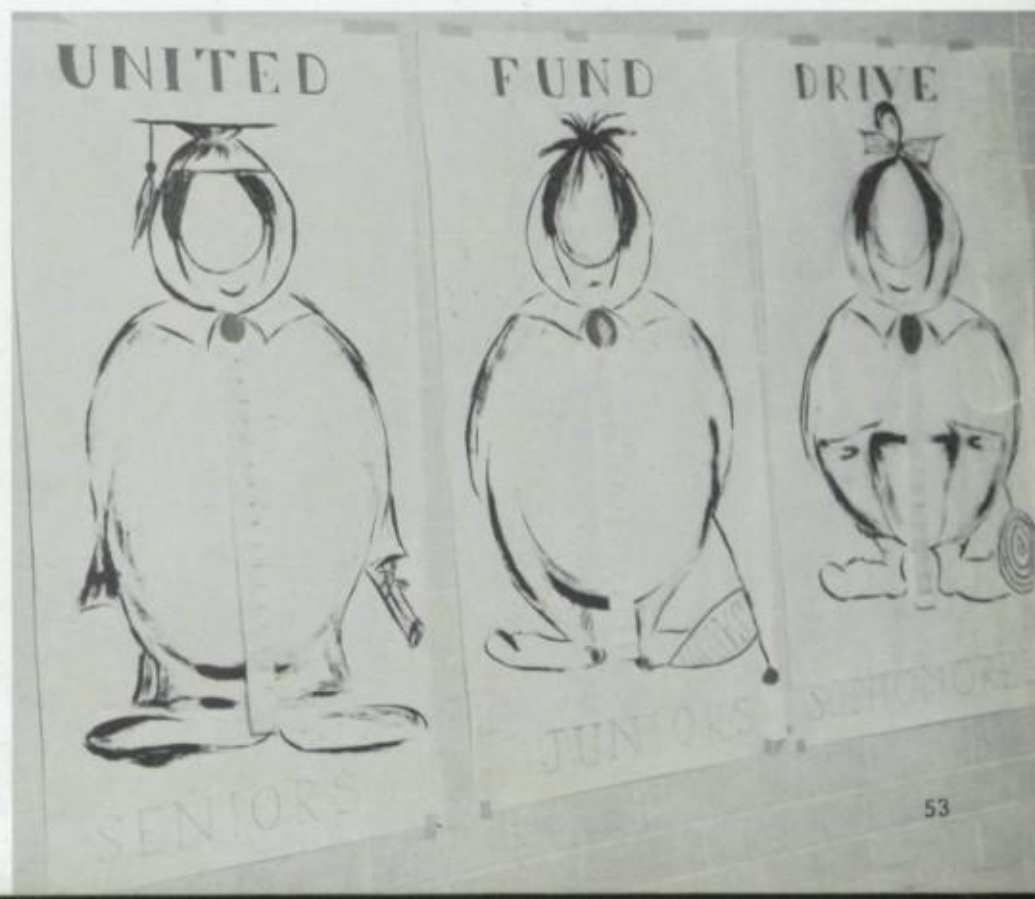

Raidena Williams, Frances Williams, Karen McCoy, and Sally Seamster enjoy the United Fund breakfast.

Choosing a doughnut at the United Fund breakfast are Karen Guidinger and Hedy Samadi.

THE GIRLS' LEAGUE OFFICERS ARE Kathy Sprague, secretary; Jayanne Harvey, president; Sue Bush, vice president; and Jacquie Graber, treasurer.

The Girl's League cabinet consists of Nancy York, Bunny Horner, Janet Anderson, Ann Hicks, Barbara Blaisdell, and Pat Johnson.

The magazine drive winners were Sharon Kinkaid, fifth; Sally Seamster, fourth; Mary Bolstad, first; Betsy McVay, third; and Linda Senter, second.

Under the guidance of Jayanne Harvey, Girls' League moved into another year of service to South Salem. An organization composed of all the girls in South, Girls' League presented educational and entertaining assemblies, and held the annual magazine drive. This fall the magazine drive raised money to be used for Girls' League scholarships.

Spirit and Speed Produce...

Breaking not only South Salem Cross Country records but also several state records— the Saxon thinclads raced to the state championship November 7 at Lincoln High School. Leading his team mates in this event, as in all others this year, was Clayton Steinke, two time winner of the state championship. The team, coached by Jack Tilton, had a 5 win and 2 loss season.

Members of the Junior Class showed their organizational ability by beginning the year with the prompt election of officers. John Saffron was chosen president; Carol Robb, vice-president; Sandy Sneddon, secretary-treasurer; and Dwight Aydelott, sergeant-at-arms. These leaders led the middle-sized Saxons to success in their many projects, including the United Fund Drive, which the Juniors won, the annual class party, and the Junior Do-nut sale.

The money raised from the movie, Mr. Roberts, was spent on the Junior-Senior Prom which had a tropical theme. Helping Carol Robb, general chairman of the dance, were Candy Painter and Rich Hawkins, decorations; Jane Tresize and Barb Brooks, refreshments; Randi Douglas and Rick Biles, programs; Kathy Sprague and Ed Perkins, publicity; and Ann Hicks and Larry Rector, chaperones.

Academically, the Juniors had a rewarding year with Larry Rector, Maggie Lancefield, Ann Hicks, Joanne Wedel, Pat Lee, and Eileen Hadley being chosen as American Field Service finalists. One of these lucky juniors will represent the school as he or she travels to a country abroad this summer. Terrie Gustafson, Eileen Hadley, John Saffron, Rich Hawkins, Ann Hicks, Kelly Davis, Jim Breithaupt, George Smith, and Terri Blum added their talents to the debate class, taking many firsts at tournaments. Outstanding athletes of the Class of 1961 included Steve Stewart, Dale Meyer, Roy Feiring, Don Royse, Dave Nielson, Jerry Madison, and Rick Biles.

Advisors: Helen Lane and Robert Voigt.

Maggie Lancefield, Eileen Hadley, JoAnne Wedel, Pat Lee, Ann Hicks, or Larry Rector will represent South Salem High School abroad this summer, as he or she participates in the American Field Service program. Shown here looking at books of foreign lands, they might be dreaming of experiences of this coming summer.

Juniors who were not available for pictures were Connie Carlson, John Friess, Sheri Hoirup, Ted Hutchinson, Jerry Jenkins, Pat Johnson, Forrest Maxwell, Dennis Moermond, Delores Parsons, Pat Smith, and James Stephens.

Saxons Cinderella Team of 1960 Tournament

The underrated, but highly talented, Saxon basketball team fought its way into semi-final playoffs at the 1960 State Basketball Tournament, March 15 to March 19. In early games the Saxons defeated Jefferson 64-52 and South Eugene 59-53, two highly rated teams. In a thrilling semi-final game that saw South lead most of the way, Medford came from behind to win 56-52. In playoffs for third place, South lost an overtime decision to Klamath Falls, 69-73. Saxon rooters were the "darlings" of the tournament with their spirit and enthusiasm. Further honor went to South when Jay Brack was elected to the All-State Team.

The 1960 tournament bug attacked South, and as the fever spread throughout the student body, more and more students came out to back our mighty five. With skill and exact coaching from Dick Ballentyne, the squad bounded into first place, suffering only two defeats. After hitting top mark in district, the Saxons went on to the State Tournament for more and greater honors.

Hoopers Bring Us Pride

Mr. Harold Hauk has been co-ordinator of physical education for South Salem High since its opening six years ago. It is through his efforts that the athletic and physical education programs of the school run smoothly. Under his guidance the many schedules of athletic events are set up, the work of the entire P. E. department is co-ordinated, and all students have the benefit of good physical education.

Soloists at the Homecoming assembly were Bob Brown, Marshall McGinnis, Anne Stevens, and Ron Feller.

Returning alums were greeted December 23 at a homecoming reception-dance held in the East Balcony. Sue Feiring and Scott Nelson acted as host and hostess for the traditional affair. This year, for the first time, the organization was handled by the senior class. A selection of 100 seniors attended the reception and mingled with the guests. Later "This Is Your Life, Class of 1959" was presented in the auditorium. Grads laughed as ludicrous scenes of their past were recreated. Also an outline of this year's activities and accomplishments was related and praised.

Come On, You Saxons!

Saxon rooters, anxious and cheering, watch the basketball court.

As the 1960 basketball season came to a close, the junior varsity team looked back at a very educational and inspiring year, in spite of a 10 win—12 loss record. Even with this record the squad, under the supervision of coach Bob Metzger, shows great potential for making up next year's varsity team.

ANNUAL

The day the snow fell, the time we won eleven straight games, the activities honoring homecoming . . . these are the moments to remember. The annual staff has endeavored to put together a Sword and Shield for 1960 that is truly a "memory book" of these events.

CLYPIAN

As the newspaper in a school of over 1400 students, it has been the aim of the Clypian to report impartially and honestly all news of interest to the student body. Among the outstanding papers published was the eight page Christmas edition.

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE INCLUDES Jackie Gorman, Terri McGlinn, Margie Milne, Carol Robb, Linda Berry, and Karen Van Keulen.

Crowns and flowers were scattered under a purple ceiling at this year's Coronation Ball. Alice Berglund ruled over a royal court as First Lady of South Salem. Her attendants were Karen Cox, First Crown Princess, and Margie Milne, Second Crown Princess. The largest crowd in South's history attended the dance.

Scott Nelson tries to free himself from his opponent for some needed points.

Ten lettermen returned to wrestling this year to lay the foundation for a winning team. To this number were added fourteen new recruits, and this combination brought South one of the best team records yet. In district finals the Saxon squad garnered one first place (the first such award in five years), two third places, and three fourth places.

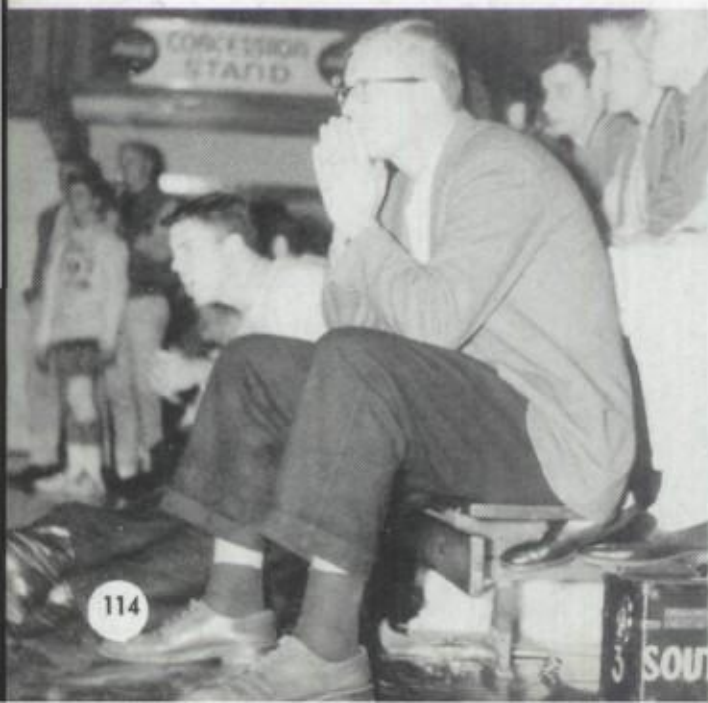

John Chappell brought home a first place award; Doug Halvorsen and Jim Krueger each won third place awards; Dwight Aydelott, Rick Nelson, and Dick Pieters all won fourth place awards.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

Doug Morgan	President
Chris Cannon	Vice-President
Andy Hill	Secretary-Treasurer
Don Schur	Sergeant-at-Arms

There is strength in numbers, and being the largest class in South has helped the Sophomores feel a part of high school. Mad confusion prevailed at first, but by spring this was replaced with a sense of security. The first "big decision" was that of choosing class officers and representatives; the second, deciding which of the many clubs to join.

After the decisions were made, the activities started. The United Fund Drive and the Iowa Tests came in quick succession. Don't Go Near The Water was selected as the class movie and provided funds for the class party.

A year's experience in high school has enabled the Sophomores to look forward to their junior year with confidence and expectation.

Racqueteers Swing to Spring

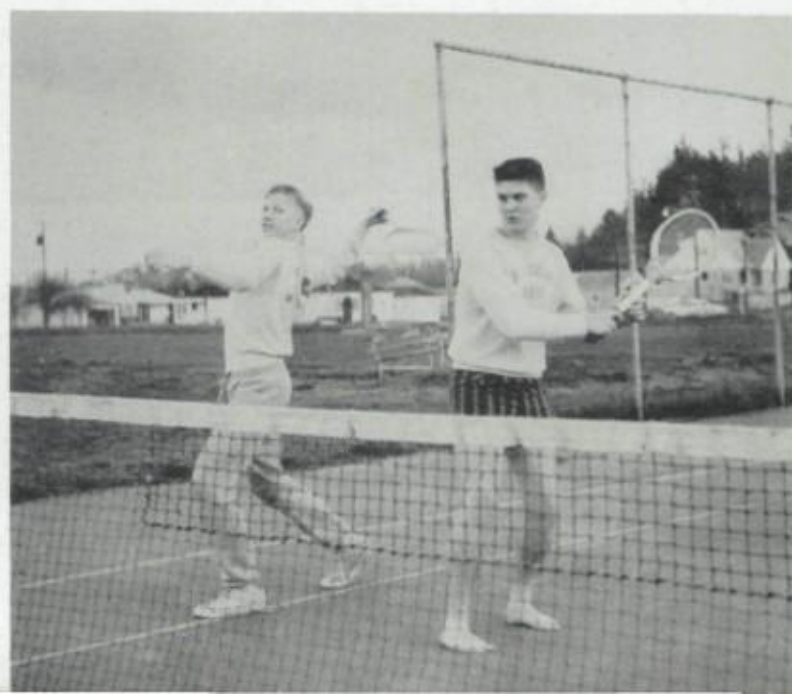

Spring sprung in the sports life at South Salem with Mr. Ritchie starting the roll call for tennis. With the help of five returning lettermen, the team and coach looked forward to a lucrative year.

Early spring tennis practice finds Jerry Stein and Don Miller sharpening up their strokes.

Coach Bill Ritchie saw his first year as Saxon tennis mentor.

Six Returning Lettermen Make Diamond Prospect Bright

A "Grand slam" season looked promising for the six returning lettermen and the ten recruits up from J. V.'s. Starting his first year at baseball coaching, Cliff Girod had a willing group to work with through the entire season.

Cliff Girod, another new coach on the Saxon scene, guided the baseball nine through its 6th season.

Filling the pitching position for the 1960 South club are LeRoy Havon, Warren Harvey, and George Smith.

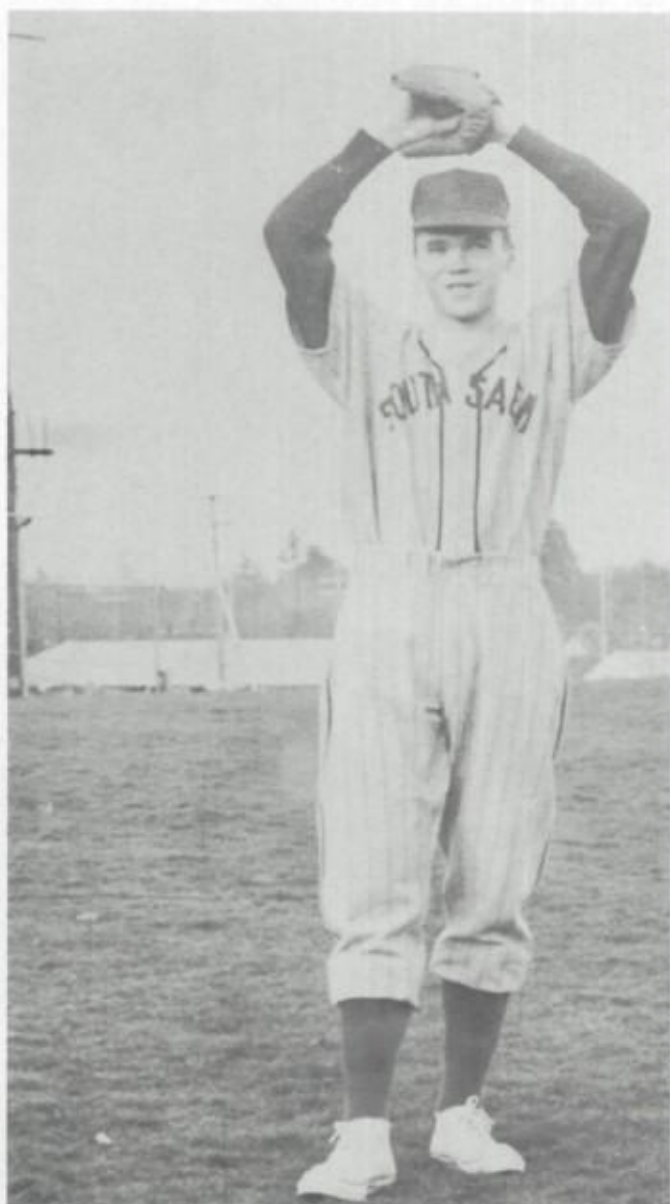

Steve SeRine was left as the only candidate for the catchers' spot after Skip Kellicut dropped out with a knee injury early in the season.

1960 Baseball Turnout Large

Ready to pounce on the ball are infielders Rick Nelson, 3rd base; Delbert Sheldon, 2nd base; John King, 1st base; Ed "Sweetwater" Swearingen, short stop; Dan McHone, 2nd base; and Arlo Pade, 1st base.

Warren "Honeybear" Harvey kids the batter before delivering his pitch.

Delbert Sheldon plays a game of pepper with John Folsom.

To take care of outfield positions were John Folsom, Jay Brack, La Mont Perman, Ron Binger, and Gary Walls.

A little trouble with the climate didn't bring altogether disastrous results for South's golfers as they sliced their way through another season.

This year's squad, strong with sophomores and juniors but still led by senior veterans, piled up several fine scores and made themselves known throughout the league.

Ed Davis looks on as Larry Potts attempts a putt.

The Sunny South Brings Out Golfers

As interest began to focus on spring events, a large turn-out greeted track coaches Lou DeLoretto and Jack Tilton. The squad saw first competitive action of the season in the Willamette Relays held at McCullough Stadium April 2.

Speed and Muscle

Coach Jack Tilton directs the field events.

Kim Clark, Bob Morrow, and Jerry Jenkins push towards finish line during practice.

John Palmer, returning letterman for track, practices his javelin throw.

Coach DeLoretto talks over the day's practice with 100 yard state champ Ron Harp and sprinter Ken Sawyer.
